

TURBINE PITLESS UNITS

The Monitor PT Industrial Pitless Unit for Line Shaft Turbine Pumps forms a watertight extension of the well casing which starts below the frostline, where it is buried permanently, and continues upward 12 or more inches above grade, where the pitless case is flanged to receive a motor support and motor. The completed assembly of the motor support and motor closes the Pitless Case making a watertight installation.